MORE! MORE!

If this isn't quite indulgent enough, up-grade!

Select additional menu items directly through our catering partner; hire our in-house photographer to capture all those special moments; have our recommended harpist play during ceremony and/or dinner; add an event tent or canopy for a cozy space, perfect for chilly times of the year; have our preferred rental company supply farm tables; add a children's area with canvas teepee, picnic blanket and pillows; open up our western cantina for an "after party" with perches, casual late night snacks; have us bring you lunch in the ladies dressing room or groom's ready room while you are getting ready;

or... share your ideas with us and we will help make it happen!

How the floral budget is calculated

For the Agua Linda Farm Micro-Wedding package, the bridal bouquet, a bridesmaid bouquet, 2 boutonnieres and floral centerpieces are included. The way we are able to do this within the cost of the package is by incorporating the many available greenery plants growing on the farm and by Laurel assembling on-site using many vessel options that she has in her inventory. The flowers themselves (with a few exceptions when flowers are also available on-site) are ordered and delivered by an outside company/vendor. The budget for flowers (not greenery/labor) is approximately $600 for a 20 guest-count event (2 bouquets, 2 boutonnieres, 3 centerpieces). The greenery, assembly, placement and supplies (florist foam, tape, etc.) is included in this package and not part of the $600 for flower purchase. Greenery draped on wedding arch is an option that is also included and centerpieces can be repurposed by first using in ceremony space then moved by staff to reception during cocktail hour/photos. Additional flowers for more bouquets and other installations can be added at additional cost. With this flower budget in mind, if clients are wanting very exotic/expensive flowers, (like calla lilies or peonies, for example), there would either be less flowers or additional costs.
